Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, see pages 8-11, filed 03/24/2005, with respect to the rejection(s) of claim(s) 1-5, 7-11, 13-18, 20-23 and 25 under 102(e) have been fully considered and are persuasive. Therefore, the rejection has been withdrawn. However, upon further consideration, a new ground(s) of rejection is made in view of Eckardt (USPN: 6,542,979).

DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-25 are pending in the application.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 1-25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Eckardt (USPN: 6,542,979).

As per claim 1, Eckardt discloses:

a) detecting a boot condition during the pre-boot test [Column 3, lines 44-46; Figure 3]; and

b) altering, in response to the boot condition, an operating system access configuration of the hardfile [Figure 3; Column 2, lines 5-10; Column 3, lines 58-62].

As per claim 7, Eckardt discloses:

a) detecting a special boot condition during a pre-boot test of the computer system [Column 3, lines 44-46; Figure 3]; and

b) altering, in response to the special boot condition, an operating system access configuration of the hardfile [Figure 3; Column 2, lines 5-10; Column 3, lines 58-62].

As per claim 13, Eckardt discloses:

a hardfile (100) for non-volatile storage of the operating system on a first part of the hardfile and a plurality of user data on a second part of the hardfile [Column 1, lines 35-50]; and a hardfile controller, coupled to the hardfile and responsive to a special boot condition detected by the pre-boot procedure, for dynamically reconfiguring operating system access to the hardfile to permit access to both the first part and the second part in a first mode and to permit access to only the first part in a second mode [Column 2, lines 10-15; Column 4, lines 52-60].

As per claim 14, Eckardt discloses:

a hardfile (100) for non-volatile storage of the operating system on a first part of the hardfile and a plurality of user data on a second part of the hardfile [Column 1, lines 35-50]; and

a hardfile controller, coupled to the hardfile and responsive to a special boot condition detected by a pre-boot procedure of the computer system, for dynamically reconfiguring operating system access to the hardfile to permit access to both the first part and the second part in a first mode and to permit access to only the first part in a second mode [Column 2, lines 10-15; Column 4, lines 52-60].

As per claim 15, Eckardt discloses:

a hardfile controller, coupled to the hardfile and responsive to a boot condition detected by the pre-boot procedure, for dynamically reconfiguring operating system access to the hardfile to permit access to both the first part and the second part in a first mode and to permit access by the operating system to only the first part in a second mode [Column 2, lines 10-15; Column 4, lines 52-60].

As per claim 16, Eckardt discloses:

a hardfile controller, coupled to the hardfile and responsive to a boot condition detected by a pre-boot procedure of the computer system, for dynamically reconfiguring operating system access to the hardfile to permit access to both the first part and the second part in a first mode and to permit access by the operating system to only the first part in a second mode [Column 2, lines 10-15; Column 4, lines 52-60].

As per claim 17, Eckardt discloses:

a hardfile (100) for nonvolatile storage of a operating system and user data; means, coupled to the computer system, for detecting a special boot condition during the pre-boot test [Column 3, lines 44-46; Figure 3]; and means, coupled to the hardfile and to the detecting means, for altering, in response to the special boot condition, an operating system access configuration of the hardfile [Column 2, lines 5-10; Column 3, lines 58-62].

As per claim 18, Eckardt discloses:

a hardfile (100) for nonvolatile storage of an operating system for a computer system in a first part and for nonvolatile storage of user data in a second part [Column 1, lines 35-50]; and means, coupled to the hardfile, for dynamically enabling operating system access to the hardfile in a first mode and a second mode, wherein the first mode enables access to the first part and the second part and the second mode enables access to only the first part [Column 2, lines 10-15; Column 4, lines 52-60].

As per claim 19, Eckardt discloses:

computer readable program code means for causing the computer system to detect a boot condition during the pre-boot test [Column 3, lines 44-46; Figure 3]; and computer readable program code means for causing the computer system to alter, in response to the boot condition, an operating system access configuration parameter of the hardfile [Column 2, lines 5-10; Column 3, lines 58-62].

As per claim 23, Eckardt discloses:

a) detecting a boot condition during the pre-boot test [Column 3, lines 44-46; Figure 3]; and

b) altering, in response to the boot condition, an operating system access configuration of an access parameter of the hardfile [Column 2, lines 5-10; Column 3, lines 58-62].

As per claims 3, 9, 21 and 25, Eckardt discloses:

wherein the hardfile is a hard drive (100).

As per claims 4 and 10, Eckardt discloses:

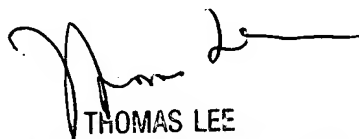

wherein the operating system is stored on a first part of the hardfile and user data is stored on a second part of the hardfile, and wherein the altering step b) sets the hardfile access to exclude the second part of the hardfile from access by the operating system [Column 1, lines 35-50; Column 2, lines 10-15; Column 4, lines 52-60].
